

Your “Weingarten” rights as unionized employees under a Supreme Court decision:

If an investigatory interview could in any way lead to your being disciplined or terminated, or affect your personal working conditions, you can respectfully request your union steward, union representative, or local 1724 officer be present at the meeting. Without representation you can choose not to answer any questions at that time.